

PUBLIC NOTICE

DIGITAL TRANSMISSION COMMENCES AT RAVENSHOE

Southern Cross TEN will begin Digital Television transmissions fulltime at Ravenshoe on Tuesday 22nd December 2009 with testing during the three weeks prior. During the test period the new digital services may be interrupted from time to time. These transmissions will be conducted as follows:-

Transmission site:	Bald Rock
Coverage Area:	Ravenshoe
Channel:	UHF 46 (655.5 MHz)
Polarity:	Vertical

Viewers with existing digital televisions or set top boxes may need to rescan to view these new services and should refer to the manufacturer's manual for instruction.

If this broadcast causes interference to your current analogue television reception then an Interference Assistance Leaflet is available from the following web site to assist you identify and overcome your digital into analogue interference:

Macquarie Southern Cross Media www.scbnetwork.com.au

Digital Set Top Boxes and Digital Televisions are available from your local retailer.

For further information contact: Southern Cross Ten 1800 620 299.